

KENNEDY.

IN CALIFORNIA -SEN. KENNEDY RECEIVED ANOTHER SECRET CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY BRIEFING TODAY AS HE ACCUSED THE GOP. OF AN ATTEMPT TO TRYING TO GAIN VOTES BY A LAST-MINUTE RELEASE OF THE B70 SUPER BOMBER PROGRAM.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE WAS BROUGHT UP TO DATE ON THE "COLD WAR" SITUATION BY GEN. CHARLES P. CABELL, DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CIA. THEY CONFERRED FOR MORE THAN 30 MINUTES ABOARD KENNEDY'S CAMPAIGN PLANE DURING A FLIGHT FROM LOS ANGELES TO SAN DIEGO.

THE SENATOR HAD SPEECHES TODAY IN BOTH THOSE CITIES AND IN SAN FRANCISCO, BEFORE FLYING TO PHOENIX, ARIZ., FOR AN OVERNIGHT STOP IN ROUTE BACK EAST.

IT WAS THE THIRD SUCH BRIEFING GIVEN THE CANDIDATE SINCE HIS NOMINATION IN JULY, AND WAS ARRANGED AT KENNEDY'S REQUEST. A KENNEDY SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS REQUESTED SO THE SENATOR WOULD KNOW ANYTHING OF IMPORTANCE THAT MIGHT HELP HIM TO "FULFILL HIS DUTY TO THE COUNTRY."

KENNEDY, WORKING HARD FOR THE 32 ELECTORAL VOTES OF VICE PRESIDENT NIXON'S HOME STATE, HIT THE ADMINISTRATION ON THE DEFENSE SPENDING ISSUE IN A STATEMENT RELEASED AT LOS ANGELES.

HE SAID A "TRANSPARENT POLITICAL MANEUVER LIES BEHIND THE ADMINISTRATION'S DECISION TO RELEASE AN ADDITIONAL $155 MILLION FOR DEVELOPMENT OF THE B70."

HE CHARGED THAT "THE OBJECTIVE IS NOT TO INCREASE NATIONAL DEFENSE: IT IS TO INCREASE REPUBLICAN VOTES."

THE SENATOR SAID THAT MORE THAN THE $155 MILLION WAS MADE
